

Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park Offers Free Guest WIFI & Free Move-In To Select RV Owners

South San Francisco, CA - Safe and affordable accommodations for travelers, construction crews, and essential workers are in high demand in San Francisco, but every once in awhile, a great deal comes along that's not to be missed, like the one Treasure Island Mobile Home and RV Park is currently offering to new guest RV owners who are looking for a long-term stay. Not only is the San Francisco RV Park open and accepting new long- and short-term residents, but they're offering a $0 move-in with no security deposit for long-term RV Stays (RV spaces subject to availability). If visitors are planning on staying at the RV Park for 6 months, get the 1st and 6th month for free!

For those who are packing up and hitting the road pursuing employment opportunities and contract jobs in the San Francisco area, owning or renting an RV means safer lodging in a more controlled environment to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.

People traveling for work are increasingly choosing more flexible alternatives to hotels and inns when looking for lodging, like Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park which offers long- and short-term stays year around. Treasure Island is a pet friendly RV park with many on-site amenities like multiple laundry facilities, private, clean restrooms, spacious full-hookup sites, a dog park, leisure areas with picnic tables. What's more, WIFI is now available to all guests throughout the park. After their reservation has been submitted and accepted, guests receive an email with the WIFI information for them to login. There are also in the process of installing WIFI premium sites to supply high speed internet to guests in need of fast broadband access.

The Property Manager at Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park tells us, "We've seen an influx of essential workers in the San Francisco Bay area, and as a residential RV park, it's rewarding to be able to offer affordable lodging to them so they can enjoy the comfort and privacy of an RV stay in a great location. By adding WIFI services to our facilities, RV owners can comfortably work remotely. People are increasingly finding that RV living fits the times."

Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park is flanked by the San Francisco Bay on one side and the Pacific Ocean on the other, making it a delightful place to stay. Just ten miles south of downtown San Francisco, the park is conveniently situated among shopping centers, public transportation BART station, easy freeway access, and many dining options. The park is also located near Starbucks Coffee, Costco, and Grocery Outlet.

On-site staff and management are taking every precaution to ensure the safety of their residents during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park is keeping guest sites at a safe distance, requiring masks in common areas, making hand sanitizer stations available throughout the park, limiting their capacity in laundry facilities, and providing clean restrooms and shower areas to make their stay as enjoyable as possible.

Making an RV purchase or rental can be a little intimidating at first, but Treasure Island has a close relationship with a nearby company called Family RV, which allows visitors to rent an RV or even rent to own. Family RV will help guests find the right RV for their needs and their budget, and Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park will provide them with a great place to stay in a great location!

Treasure Island Mobile Home & RV Park is pleased to welcome visitors and workers, during these uncertain times, offering an affordable location minutes away from Mussel Rock Park at the Pacific Ocean coastline, about 20 minutes from the Golden Gate Bridge, half an hour from the San Francisco South Bay, and close to major highways and the San Francisco Airport. Whether you're seeking a full time space or just passing through, Treasure Island invites guests, their families, and their pets to spend their days visiting such landmarks as Golden Gate Park; the Pacific Coast; the San Francisco Bay and so much more!
